

Center for International Trade Development (CITD)

At El Camino College

Established in 1998, the Center for International Trade Development (CITD) is funded by the Chancellor's Office of the State of California to promote the state's international trade and competitiveness, assist exporters and importers, and advance economic and job growth.

The El Camino College CITD provides a full range of trade assistance services to companies and individuals in the greater Los Angeles area. For more information on how the CITD can help you, call 310.973.3148 or visit <http://elcamino.citd.org> and www.tradecomplianceinstitute.org.

Los Angeles Customs Brokers & Freight Forwarders Association (LACBFFA)

Formed in 1949, the Los Angeles Customs Brokers and Freight Forwarders Association promotes the Southern California customs brokerage and freight forwarding industry as a whole. The organization takes an active leadership role in organizing and participating in seminars and conferences relevant to its members and jointly sponsors sessions with other common interest organizations and government agencies.

El Camino College District is committed to providing equal opportunity in which no person is subjected to discrimination on the basis of ethnic group identification, national origin, religion, age, sex, race, color, ancestry, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability or retaliation.

U.S. Customs Broker Exam Preparation

If you're planning on taking the U.S. Customs Broker Exam, preparation is key as only 11.4 percent of the applicants passed the spring 2009 exam.

Let the El Camino College Center for International Trade Development (CITD) and the Los Angeles Customs Brokers and Freight Forwarders Association (LACBFFA) help you prepare for the next U.S. Customs Broker exam. Our 10-week in-depth course provides an extensive review of exam topics including:

- Entry Requirements
- Valuation
- Classification
- Country of Origin
- NAFTA and other Trade Agreements
- Broker Responsibilities
- FP&F
- Protests
- Marking
- Prohibited & Restricted Merchandise
- Antidumping/ Countervailing Duty
- Drawback
- Intellectual Property Rights and More!

Previous examination questions are provided to familiarize you with the material covered and the format of the exam. Rigorous training in how to effectively research the exam questions within the time frame is also covered.

Please note: You must be of good moral character, a U.S. citizen at least 21 years of age, and not a current federal employee to become a customs broker. You do not need to be a citizen to sit for the exam.
